City Students Achieve Above State, National Norms On Test

By DEBBIE N. LEE
Staff Reporter

Students in the Murray Independent School System are achieving above both state and national levels in all subject areas according to a report given to the school board Thursday night by Doralyn Lanier, supervisor of instruction.

The results were obtained from the Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills which was given to all third, fifth, seventh and 10th graders last April.

Students who scored below the national norm, the 77th percentile, on any section of the test are now being given diagnostic tests to enable teachers to plan individual remedial programs for them, Ms. Lanier said. These diagnostic tests are the Prescriptive Reading Inventory and the Diagnostic Mathematics Inventory.

Ms. Lanier noted several areas of strength in the schools' test results. Among these are that 100 percent of the third graders are reading above the national level; 97.6 percent of the fifth graders are above the national norms in both reading and reference skills; 97.6 percent of the seventh graders are above the national norm in reading; and 96.1 percent of the 10th graders are above the national norm in math.

The supervisor also pointed out that test scores in spelling ranked lower statewide than any other subject area.

Ms. Lanier said she feels there are several reasons for the overall high scores on the test. These include increased funding from the state; Title I programs which have increased reading levels by providing resource people to help students having difficulty in reading; increased individualization in classrooms; higher local funding which permits a smaller pupil-teacher ratio; and the willingness of the school board to fund new programs which teachers feel will be beneficial to students.

An in-service program for city schools teachers will be held Nov. 2, according to Ms. Lanier, to analyze the achievement test results. An item analysis will allow teachers to see specific areas of weakness and suggest ways to broaden the curriculum to improve skills in these areas.

Thirty-seven states have mandated competency-based education since the national norms were established, Ms. Lanier said. New national norms will be established for the test in 1981, and it is expected that the new norms will be higher because of the increase of testing basic skills.

In other business, the board accepted the resignation of Murray High School Spanish and study hall teacher Roger Casas and hired Christine Timko Garcia Penya as his replacement. A bus driver, George White, also resigned effective today. The board approved the hiring of Rebena Peal for that position. Maureen Crawford was also approved for the substitute teacher list.

Superintendent Robert Glin Jeffrey reported that the enrollment for the city schools now stands at 1,650, compared to 1,826 for the 1978-79 school year. The enrollment breakdown by schools show 330 students at Robertson Elementary; 243 at Carter Elementary; 498 at Murray Middle School; and 579 at Murray High School.

Board members were also informed that 100 percent of all the elementary and middle school students have met the state immunization requirements, however, about six high school students have not been immunized. These students are presently not attending school.

Requests For Citizen Poll Denied

Council Votes Down Main Street Project

By GENE McCUTCHEON
Managing Editor

The controversial proposal to four-lane Main Street from Murray State University to near the court square, has been quashed by a 6-2 vote of the Murray Common Council Thursday night.

The action followed a 90-minute public meeting during which several local citizens expressed their views on the project, which has been proposed by the Kentucky Department of Transportation.

The proposed four-laning, which would have widened Main Street from 16th Street to 6th Street, was an outgrowth of the 1968 Mel Conner transportation study conducted jointly by the city, state and federal government.

Last night's public meeting, which was held prior to the regular council meeting, was prompted by a request from state transportation secretary Calvin Grayson that the council convey to him the city's official position — either for or against — the proposal. Grayson's request came in the form of a letter received by the city earlier this summer.

Many of the opponents to the project who aired their views last night expressed the fear that the project would do irreparable damage to Murray's "charm."

"Murray has not yet equated 'progress' with 'concrete,'" Mrs. Libby Hart told the council.

But Harold Doran countered by saying his fear is for the future. "We will have less options available (in the future) and they will be far more expensive," Doran said.

Many of the citizens who spoke on the issue, both pro and con, indicated they favored a proposal offered by Walt Apperson, president of the Murray-Calloway County Chamber of Commerce.

Apperson suggested that the proposal be put on the ballot for the November general election to allow all citizens of Murray the option of expressing their opinions on the project.

But councilman Billy Balentine made a motion following the public meeting that forced the council go on record last night resulting in the negative vote.

Voting against the Main Street four-laning were council members Balentine, Howard Koenen, J. D. Outland, Ruby Hale, Dave Willis and C. C. Lowry. Voting in favor were councilmen Steve Yarbrough and J. H. Nix. Councilmen Marshall Jones and W. R. Furches abstained from voting due to a possible conflict of interest. Councilman Dick George was absent from the meeting.

Several of those who spoke on both sides of the issue admitted to a traffic problem in Murray but those opposed to the four-laning questioned whether or

Tourism Commission Approved By Council

A tourism commission for the city of Murray will be established to promote tourism, recreation and conventions in the city under a proposal approved by the Murray Common Council at its regular meeting Thursday.

Included in the proposal, which will set up the seven-member panel, will be the levying of a three percent tax on transient hotel-motel room rates within the city.

The commission, proposed by Marshall Jones, will become effective Nov. 1 and will include representatives from the hotel-motel industry, Murray State University, the Murray-Calloway County Chamber of Commerce and other peer groups directly connected with the tourism industry.

Also Thursday, the council approved several appointments to various city positions including the naming of Steve Sammons to fill out the unexpired term of Martha Sammons who resigned her post on the council in August. Sammons was the top non-incumbent vote-getter in the May Democratic council primary.

Republican councilman, Steve Yarbrough, who had been nominated for his second term on the city legislative body, announced last night that he is resigning from the council effective Oct. 1. Yarbrough said in a letter to the mayor and council members that he has received an "opportunity to continue my education has been offered and will require that I be away from Murray for several months."

In other appointments:

— Perry Jones was named to fill the vacancy on the Murray Planning Commission created by the resignation of W. A. Franklin.

Wilson, Sykes Nominated For Highest FFA Degree

Mark Wilson and Shea Sykes, both of Calloway County, have been nominated to receive the American Farmer Degree, the highest degree presented by the National Future Farmers of America (FFA) organization.

Sykes and Wilson, both members of the Calloway County FFA chapter, were nominated for the national award by the Kentucky FFA association. They will receive the degree in a special ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 8, along with 786 other nominees pending a final vote of 122 student delegates representing nearly half a million FFA members.

Wilson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilson, Rt. 3, Murray, is currently farming. He earned the American Farmer Degree on the basis of an outstanding farm experience program and his leadership ability.

Sykes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Sykes of Murray and is also currently farming. He earned the American Farmer Degree on the basis of his outstanding work experience program and leadership activities.

The high school vocational agriculture instructor and FFA advisor for both Sykes and Wilson is Larry Gilbert at Calloway County High School.

The American Farmer Degree is much sought after because it is only presented to approximately one member in 700 of the 494,394 member organization. It is presented only by the National FFA organization to members who have demonstrated exceptional agricultural and leadership achievements.

To qualify for the American Farmer Degree, FFA members must have advanced through a system of degrees unique to the FFA organization. FFA members begin as Greenhands and after one year of membership may be advanced by the local chapter to the degree of "Chapter Farmer." The third degree, that of "State Farmer," is presented by the state FFA association to two percent of the state's total FFA membership in any one year. Only students who have earned the state farmer degree are eligible for the American Farmer Degree.

The National FFA Convention is an annual event of the Future Farmers of America and is carried out in cooperation with the U. S. office of Education of the Department of Health Education, and Welfare. This year over 20,000 FFA members, vocational agriculture teachers, parents and guests are expected to take part in the 52nd annual convention.

The convention is conducted entirely by students members between the ages of 14 and 21. Six national FFA officers take charge of all business sessions and 122 official delegates represent the membership in voting on all issues of business.

Travel awards will be presented to American Farmer Degree recipients to offset their expenses to the national convention in Kansas City.

Nunn Again Calls For Brown To Make Income Tax Returns Public

By The Associated Press

Republican gubernatorial nominee Louie B. Nunn has again called for John Y. Brown Jr. to make his income tax returns public.

Nunn said Thursday that his Democratic rival had promised, if elected, "to keep no secrets from the public. I suggest he inaugurate this policy right now by releasing his tax returns."

Brown, meantime, was urging Republicans to support his candidacy.

He told an audience at London that some Republicans already have deserted Nunn because there are "tired of scurrilous attacks. They are tired of character assassination. They are tired of statements and speeches which misrepresent, distort, or falsify the facts."

Brown contended that Kentucky's problems are not partisan problems. "Good citizenship and hope for a better life — these are things which belong to Republicans, Democrats and Independents alike. A better quality of life for all Kentuckians is what I intend to work for as governor," Brown declared.

He toured Perry, Harlan, Bell, Knox, Laurel and Boyle counties by helicopter, stopping at the county seats.

In each instance, Brown spoke of the "malice and filth" being used by his opponent.

He also said his forces were forming a committee of "outstanding Republicans for John Y. Brown."

These Kentuckians, Brown continued, "join me in welcoming to your ranks every Republican in Kentucky — not just for this election but for the next four years."

STATE DENTAL SEALANT TEAM TO VISIT CALLOWAY COUNTY — Dr. Larry Thomas, field supervisor for the Kentucky Dental Sealant Team, checks this student's mouth to identify teeth that should be sealed. The dental sealant is applied to the biting surfaces of the permanent back teeth to give them additional protection from decay. On September 17, the team will begin serving the 2nd, 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students attending schools in Calloway County. City Schools will be done later this month and early October. Students must have permission slips signed by their parents or guardians to receive this free service.

Nashville Work Farm Escapee Captured By Sheriff's Department

The Calloway County Sheriff's Department arrested an escapee from a Nashville work farm, according to a sheriff's spokesman.

The escapee, A.T. Whitnell III, who was serving time on a drug charge, was lodged in the Calloway County Jail, the spokesman said. He added Nashville authorities are making preparations to return him the that city.

The spokesman said Whitnell had obtained a Kentucky identification and was going by the name of Ankou Tee Davidson.

Robinson- Purichia Vows Are Read Here

Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson of Cornby, Ind., announce the marriage of their daughter, Teresa Gail, to David Purichia. The vows were read July 21 by the Rev. Wilburn Bohannon at the Morwood Baptist Church there.

Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. Helen Robinson of Murray and the late Herschel Robinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Noble Hopkins of Murray Route 2.

THE ACES® IRA G. CORN, JR.

"He who laughs last meant to tell the story you just did." — Eiband Wilshusen.

Either side might enjoy some laughs after the play of today's seesaw game. If declarer plays with deception, the defenders might become glum. If he plays with his head in the sand, the defense may make him want to keep it there.

West leads from his "longest and strongest," dummy's 10 is played and East plays low. What card should declarer play?

If he allows the 10 to win, he can count on three spades and four diamonds, so he needs a winning club finesse to make the game. The club finesse is taken at trick two and West is in with the king of clubs. What should West do?

West knows that there is no future in spades, little future in diamonds and declarer himself has played clubs. Therefore, West does not have to be a genius to find the killing switch to hearts. If he does, the defense takes five tricks and declarer enjoys no laughs.

How does declarer avoid the club finesse? He doesn't. He simply makes it harder for West to make his best play.

At trick one, instead of allowing the spade 10 to hold, he should play his king on dummy's 10 as though he had a doubleton A-K. Now when the club finesse loses to West's King, West may take the bait, and is likely to continue another spade.

That would make for an interesting conversation

Lockhart & McDonald Vows Are Read At Church Here

The Chapel of the First Baptist Church was the setting for the summer evening wedding of Miss Sharon Lea Lockhart, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Lockhart of Murray, and Gerald Anthony McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald of Haskell, Texas.

The Rev. Dr. Bill Whittaker performed the double ring ceremony. The center of the altar was adorned with a heart-shaped candelabrum while on each side was a seven branch candelabrum. White bows marked the family pews.

A program of piano music was presented by Richard Jones. Vocal selections by Gus Robertson, Jr., included "More," "Wither thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The mothers of the bride and groom entered on the "Hawaiian Wedding Song," and the bridesmaids and the bride entered by the traditional "Wedding March."

As the guests arrived, they registered just before entering the sanctuary at a table covered with a white lace cloth. Beside the wedding book was a crystal bud vase with a single white rose with baby's breath. Each guest was presented with a scroll after they registered. Miss Mitzi Cathey, cousin of the bride, attended the register table.

Bride's Dress

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Larry Lockhart, wore a formal gown of pearl white organza chantilly lace fashioned with a scoop neckline and lantern style sleeves.

The all over lace bodice was accented with an empire waistline. Her flowering skirt was marked with three lace tiers. The cathedral train was completely framed in the same lace.

Her waist length tiered veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet style headpiece accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of sweetheart roses, lilies of the valley, and baby's breath. The bouquet was accented with trailing lace.

Mrs. Madeline Van Keuren was the bride's matron of honor. Her bridesmaids were

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Anthony McDonald

Mrs. Kathy Domesick, sister of the bride, and Miss Brenda Andes.

The attendants wore floor length dresses of pale aqua knit. They were designed with matching sleeveless vests edged with lace. Around their necks each wore a gold necklace given to them by the bride. Each of the attendants carried a nosegay of white lilies of the valley with white steamer.

Earl Lynn McDonald Jr., brother of the groom, served as the best man. Groomsmen were William Domesick, and Bob Toon.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of pale pink linen, designed A-line with three-quarter sleeves. Her accessories were burgundy and she had a corsage of white orchids.

The groom's mother wore a street length dress of pale blue knit accented with white flowers. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of white orchids.

Reception
Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

In charge of the reception were Mrs. Shirley Toon and Mrs. Ruth Bailey, aunts of the bride. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Kyra Lockhart, Miss Shara Toon, and Miss Mitzi Cathey.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length blue satin cloth overlaid with white lace. The centerpiece contained blue and white daisies, sprengeri, and baby's breath and was accented with three blue candles. The three tiered cake was edged with blue roses and was topped with a miniature bride and groom statuette. The silver punch bowl was complemented by other silver appointments. Canapés, nuts, mints, and punch were served.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spiceland, Dearborn, Mich.; Mrs. Christine Dawson, Cadiz, Miss.; Sharon Spiceland, Birmingham, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cathey, Dearborn, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lockhart, Houston, Texas; Mrs. Kaye Ryan, Findlay, Ill.; Mrs. Joan Bagn, Sullivan, Ill.; Mrs. Ruth Bailey, Bowie, Md.; Mrs. Madeline Van Keuren, Shelbyville, Ill.; Ms. Brenda Andes, Findlay, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. McDonald, Earl Lynn McDonald Jr., Haskell, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. William Domesick, Houston, Texas.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for a short stay at Kenlake before returning back to Houston, Tex., where they reside at Alexander House Apts. The bride will be teaching third grade at Ridgecrest Elementary and the groom will be teaching horticulture at Spring Branch Sr. High School.

Rehearsal Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald, the groom's parents, were hosts for the rehearsal party which was held at the Holiday Inn.

The tables were covered with white linen cloths. The centerpiece of each table consisted of live magnolias in a silver bowl. The bride and groom presented gifts to their attendants.

Fifteen people attended the dessert party.

Reeves Home Opened For Eva Wall Group

Opal Reeves opened her home for the meeting of the Eva Wall Mission Group of the Memorial Baptist Church held Tuesday, Aug. 28, at 2 p.m.

Guest church speaker was Connie White who presented the book, Crazy For God by Chris Edwards, a former member of the Moon religion. Mrs. White was introduced by Margaret Taylor, program chairman.

Laura Jennings, chairman, presided and Thyra Crawford led the opening prayer. May Foster read Acts 24 and led in prayer. Willie Garland led in prayer for the missionaries on the birthday calendar.

Also present were Lottie Gibson, Geneva Belcher, Zella Covington, Lala Boyd, Nettie McKeel, and Virginia Moore.

Other chapter officers are Jane Greer, first vice, Sharon Walker, second vice, Joy Kelso, secretary, Debra Pritchett, treasurer, Cathy Crawford, historian, Lisa Garland, song leader, Regina Waker, recreational leader, Shirley Elkins, parliamentarian, and Tammy Torsak, devotional leader. Advisers are Lucy Ann Forrest and Bess Kerlick.

Bingoholic Is Bad Bet

DEAR ABBY: I'm 23 and happily married. My problem is my mother. She's a sick woman. Not a day goes by that she doesn't play bingo!

Abby, it is driving our family nuts. I have two younger sisters at home who complain because Mum is gone all the time. She knows where all the bingo games are, and she plays night and day. It takes all the money she has, and when she's broke, she borrows from her children.

My father left her because of this. I know it sounds outrageous, but it's the truth. You never in your life saw a woman so crazy over anything as my mother is over bingo. She hardly ever wins, but she keeps going in hopes of winning a big one.

Is there a cure for a bingo freak?

WORRIED ABOUT MUM

DEAR WORRIED: Your mother is addicted to gambling just as surely as an alcoholic is addicted to drink. But she can be helped if she truly wants to be. Urge her to call GAMBLERS ANONYMOUS. If they aren't listed in your phone book, write to P.O. Box 17173, Los Angeles, Calif. 90017.

Many compulsive gamblers have lucked out by joining this wonderful group of people who are living proof that it's possible to win back their self-respect and happy homes after having lost everything.

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago I met a nice looking man at the shopping center. I was fishing around in my purse for change for the parking meter and he put his own money in as a gentlemanly act. After I finished my shopping I came back to my car and this same man was waiting for me. He reminded me of my dear, departed husband, so I offered to buy him a cup of coffee.

We really hit it off from the start. I told him I was a widow and he said he was a widower. We exchanged phone numbers. He said if I called him and a woman answered to hang up because he was living with a nosy sister and he didn't want her to know his business.

We started seeing each other always at my place and during the afternoon and we just plumb fell in love. I'm 62 and he's 66.

Suddenly I was served papers! To make a long story short, this man had been married for 42 years, his wife was suing him for divorce and she named me as the cause!

I swear I never knew this man was married. He muddled up my name in this town. How can I teach him a lesson?

TAKEN IN IN MISSOURI
DEAR TAKEN: Never mind the "lesson." This senior swinger has already graduated. Just let his wife handle the punishment.

DEAR ABBY: I am a truck driver's wife. A few days ago my husband called me long distance to tell me that he was considering changing companies. He asked me to think about it for a few days and let him know how I felt about it.

Well, Abby, the next day he called to tell me that he had already changed jobs. Then he informed me that his new boss was a woman, and also his co-driver!

He assures me that nothing will happen between them, but he has been unfaithful before and I don't trust him. I was terribly upset with this news and I let him know it.

Do you think I'm "childish" for objecting to my husband's driving with a woman partner? He says I am. And what should I do about it?

ALABAMA WIFE
DEAR WIFE: You can't be blamed for feeling as you do. A man who would change jobs without waiting to hear his wife's opinion obviously doesn't much care what she thinks. What you should do depends upon your options.

HERE'S HEALTH

By DR. BRYAN THACKER

In some homes, the "growing pains" that children complain about are not treated too seriously. Actually, the rapid growth in children can create situations that cause spinal problems after the child has reached adulthood.

For example, one leg may grow longer than the other. The difference in length leads to a pelvic imbalance. The pelvis is the base of the spine, so the spine curves slightly to compensate. This curvature may become permanent if the leg-length difference is not corrected.

Chiropractic discovers and corrects the cause of aches and pains, rather than treat the symptoms. Make an appointment by phoning our office.

Mineral oil habit

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My father has emphysema and takes one tablespoon of mineral oil every day as a laxative. He finds that if he doesn't, he becomes constipated and very short of breath when he goes to the bathroom.

I recently saw a TV program in which a doctor said that continued use of mineral oil would coat the lungs. My father's doctor said it was OK for him to use the mineral oil. Now I'm confused. Is the mineral oil harmful to his lungs? If so, is there another laxative he could take that would not be harmful?

DEAR READER — I'm not fond of the mineral oil habit. I presume that the TV program that you heard referred to the possibility of inhaling some of the mineral oil. Any small drop from the back of the throat that is inhaled lodges in the lungs. If enough lodged, you could have a form of oil pneumonia because mineral oil is not destroyed by the body tissues.

We used to think that mineral oil wasn't absorbed from the digestive system either, but small amounts of it are and the part that's picked up by the circulation lodges in different organs of the body and sets up an inflammatory reaction in that area.

Mineral oil may also interfere with the absorption of vitamins and minerals. Finally, it can create the socially embarrassing problem of leakage.

I understand the problem you're explaining about your father getting short of breath because of his lung disease and the need he has to avoid difficult elimination. To help you in this area, I'm sending you The Health Letter number 12-8, Laxatives, Enemas And Suppositories. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents in check or coin with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. As you see from The Health Letter many laxatives should not be used on a regular basis.

It might require a period of transition but if your father could start a program to improve his bowel function, he might be able to avoid mineral oil. If he has enough bulk in his diet, particularly cereal fiber that absorbs moisture, this may help to solve part of his problem.

Meanwhile, I hope your father is doing everything he can to help his emphysema. That includes not using any cigarettes or tobacco in any form. Obviously, if his lung functions were improved, his breathlessness would be less of a problem during elimination.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Is it true that drinking unsweetened grapefruit juice aids in dieting by causing the stomach to shrink and suppressing appetite?

DEAR READER — Unfortunately not. You may think that grapefruit juice tastes pretty acid but that's nothing compared to the amount of acid your own stomach produces. Did you know your stomach produces pure hydrochloric acid? The acid aids the digestive process.

The grapefruit juice might occupy some space and it might take the edge off your appetite to keep you from eating more calories, but it doesn't shrink the stomach. And it does contain real calories.

Murphy's Law Lives

Because somebody wasn't minding the store at NASA, 10 minutes of crucial data from the Pioneer 11 probe as it passed Saturn's moon, Titan, were lost in space.

That somebody forgot to ask the Soviet Union to turn off transmissions from one of its orbiting satellites, and they swamped the faint signals from Pioneer 11.

The signals were supposed to give scientists their first readings of temperatures on the large moon, which is believed to be the likeliest place in the solar system, outside earth, on which some form of life may exist. Fortunately, there will be another chance to find out when Voyager 1 flies by Saturn and Titan in November 1980.

We don't know how much of Pioneer 11's $100-million cost was wasted because of what the space agency calls "human error," but we're inclined to be forgiving. It's flabbergasting enough that men can direct a tiny probe across two billion miles to a pinpoint location in space and (usually) receive radio messages from it.

They've earned a goof or two.

Humanely Speaking

"Finding Fido"

If your cat or dog disappears, taking the proper steps without delay to find him increases your chances of finding him. Of course, your task may be made considerably easier if you have taken the precaution of placing a collar with an ID tag bearing your name, current address, and phone number around your pet's neck. Often, a phone call from an individual who has found him precedes your awareness that he is missing!

Having a good photo of your pet will aid you in describing him — It is often difficult to remember whether your cat has three white feet, or four, or whether Fido has one brown ear, or two. Showing the photo around the neighborhood or posting it in the laundry may lead to a quick clue to his whereabouts.

If your dog has a pedigree, report your loss to the police. Dogsnapping by unscrupulous individuals who hope to sell pets for a handsome profit is increasingly common. By all means, make it a point to visit the local Trade Day (first and fourth Monday mornings) and Trade Day in nearby towns (Mayfield holds Trade Day on the second and third Mondays). Having a good photo of your dog can be a big help in establishing ownership of the dog. If you find your dog at Trade Day, by all means file charges with the county attorney for theft!

Call the Humane Society to see if the animal warden or some other individual has taken your pet there. Ask the shelter personnel to make a card with a description of your pet for their files. Since your description of the animal may not be completely accurate and subject to misinterpretation, visit the shelter every few days to see for yourself if the animal has been brought in.

Place an ad in the "Lost and Found" of the newspaper, and call the radio station to ask that a description of your pet be broadcast. Post ads on bulletin boards in laundries around town. Check the list of "found" animals. Often, no one bothers to match the lost and found columns, and lost animals remain lost. Offering a reward may greatly increase your chance of being reunited with your pet.

Since animals which have strayed from home run a high risk of being injured by another animal or a car, check the veterinarians in the area to see if your pet has been brought in. As is frequently the case, the best cure for a lost animal is prevention: Put an ID tag on his collar; don't let him run loose; don't take him with you to the shopping center or on your vacation.

The County Animal Shelter, which is operated by the Humane Society, is located at 106 E. Sycamore Extended (off Highway 121 in Southeast Murray), and is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday. The telephone number is 759-4141.

Bible Thought

And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins. Matthew 1:21

Because He was God's only Son Jesus was the only one who could save anyone from their sin. God's plan of redemption required a perfect sacrifice.

The Story Of Calloway County 1822-1976

By Dorothy and Kerby Jennings

Copyright, 1978

Some recreation was essential to maintain the troubled folks. Baseball was the one sport with masculine attraction. Joe Matt Wheeler, one of Murray's better pitchers, had been injured, thus unable to play, but was willing to supply as umpire for Murray against Dresden. But it was Joe Matt's injury which fascinated the Ledger editor when he journalistically observed: "Joe Matt let 90 cents of ice from the Independent Ice Company fall on his foot that wasn't worth 30 cents." Who said it didn't pay to advertise!

On public morals, one upset subscriber wrote: "If you are going to stand for women folks to wear shadow and slit skirts and tight form-fitting dresses and vulgar hobble skirts, and our young women learning to dance the boll weevil wiggles, Texas Tommy tango, the bunny hug, the bear dance, the buzzard flop, and so on down the line, the men had just as well have their saloons, and the whole push go down to hell together." Not so scathing but with a masculine flavor was this observation: "Just now the Russian army is assailing Limburger, while Budweiser is very near and thence to Frankfurter and on to Cologne." Think we could eat a little of the first, drink a little of the next, consume a few of the next, and fool our wife with the last."

The burning issue at the end of the 1914 year was the big war overseas. The controversy of direct voting for U. S. senators had been settled, but a new local confab was on the horizon. This was the movement to consolidate county schools, but it made scant headway for the cost of transporting youngsters to school in a hired wagon with driver and team was too alarming to give momentum to the modern trend. The sale of Red Cross Tuberculosis Stamps to finance the campaign against this disastrous disease (originally launched in 1908) was again on foot this not-so-merry Christmas season in Calloway County. This year's budget by the national league was $1,800,000, three times the original issue of 1908.

God's Authority And Rule

Through the centuries men have questioned God's authority and right to rule. The continuation of this practice is evidenced today by the widespread denial of the inspiration and authority of the Holy Scriptures.

Matthew 21:33-41

Aware of His approaching crucifixion, Christ stood in the temple, faced His bitter enemies, and answered their heartless attacks in words such as no other ever spoke. By means of parables Christ brought them to the point where their own words condemned them for their hypocrisy and rebellion against Him.

In this parable Christ told about a man who owned a piece of fertile land. On it he planted a vineyard with the choicest vine, fenced it, and erected a tower for a watchman to observe any intruders. He also prepared a winepress, after which he left it in the care of others.

In due season the owner sent his servants for fruit, but the husbandmen mistreated and abused them. A large group of servants went, and received similar treatment for simply requesting the fruit which rightfully belonged to the owner. Finally, he sent unto them his son, whereupon he was seized, cast out and slain.

This householder represents God, the Creator and Owner of all things. The vineyard represents the nation of Israel. The husbandmen represent the rulers and leaders of Israel. The servants represent the prophets and teachers whom God sent to warn the Israelites of their disobedience and wickedness. The son represents the Lord Jesus, Who was about to be put to death when He spoke this parable.

Christ let His hearers know that there was not the slightest possibility of an evasion of responsibility on their part, for a reckoning day was coming to them. Christ wanted to save them from the coming judgment, but they would not let Him.

Ere forty years had elapsed, their beloved city, Jerusalem, was destroyed, the temple was burned and laid in ruins, and the Jews were scattered over the face of the earth. The heartbreaking story of their unbelief and rejection of Christ, and the judgment which has befallen them through the intervening centuries, should teach us that it is always perilous to reject Christ as Saviour. To reject Christ is to spurn an adequate provision for every need, a perfect solution for every problem, a genuine comfort for every trial, and sufficient strength for every need. Rejection of Christ is never justifiable.

Matthew 13:44-46

Security Income. Which card is this? I mean, for what program? A friend tells me that they finally passed a national health plan and that is what this card is for. I doubt that, though, because I haven't heard it on the news and my friend has a long-standing record of never being right about anything. — A reader.

What you just described to us is your Medicare card, even though it doesn't say "Medicare" on it anywhere. Your friend's long-standing record is still intact. Congress has not yet passed a national health plan of any kind.

HEARTLINE: I learned recently that I am a diabetic and must give myself insulin shots. I have a friend who has been on Medicare for years and is also a diabetic, and he insists that Medicare will pay for insulin and needles. I called my Social Security office and was told that Medicare will pay for insulin and needles. Now, to really confuse the issue, I read in your guide to Medicare that Medicare WILL NOT pay for insulin and needles! What's the story — who's right? — E.W.

Unfortunately for you, your friend and the person with whom you spoke at your Social Security office are both wrong. Medicare will not help cover the cost of insulin or insulin needles.

HEARTLINE: Some time ago — last year, I think — you had an article in your column about an emergency information card with medical information on microfilm built into the card. Could you send me the address to write for information on this card? — J.A.

For information on Heartline's Emergency Information Card, write to Heartline-E.I.S., 114 East Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 45381.

HEARTLINE: I do not want to make a big issue out of this right now but, just for my own information, what is the best or most proper course of filing a complaint against a particular Social Security employee who is rude and at times downright obnoxious? — An American Citizen Rapidly Losing Patience!

We do not blame you for losing patience. No government employee has the right, regardless of position, to be rude or nasty when dealing with the public. You will find that those in management positions within Social Security agree. We suggest that you request an appointment with the manager or supervisor of the Social Security office in which you received such treatment. If it is the office manager or supervisor you are complaining about, then send your complaint to Heartline. We will forward your letter to the correct department in Baltimore and we guarantee it will be investigated.

Ten Commandments For Parents

Here is a list of ten commandments which Michael Daves shared with us several years ago with some additional comments.

- 1) Thou shalt start with training thyself. For example, if you don't want your child to smoke, then you had better not smoke. It is presumptuous to expect your child to be any better than you are.
- 2) Thou shalt be more concerned with relationships than rules. No rules can be pure chaos; they are needed, but they should be submitted to the test: Will they help the child grow in his relationship to God, his neighbor, and himself?
- 3) Thou shalt impart the Christian Faith. Parents are the teachers of religion in the home. The Church can only support. An ounce of parent is worth a pound of pastor.
- 4) Thou shalt learn to listen. Deep heartfelt listening is one of the first duties of parenting. It can span the generation gap.
- 5) Thou shalt spend time with thy children. Once a minister's daughter dropped a visitors card in the offering plate on Sunday morning requesting a visit from her minister!
- 6) Thou shalt acknowledge thy sins as parents. Confess your sins to your children; the earth won't cave in! Admit your inadequacies. God's grace is broad enough and deep enough to cover them all.
- 7) Thou shalt keep a sense of humor. Laughter releases pent up despair and relieves hostility. It is the best medicine.
- 8) Thou shalt treat thy children with equal respect. A child should be loved for who he is; not for what you want him to become. Each child is a unique gift; each is special.
- 9) Thou shalt use discipline. Parents who do not provide disciplined structure, do not really love their children; rather they are engaged in a neurotic bid for popularity.
- 10) Thou shalt know when to let go. There is a time to protect, but there is a time to cut the apron strings. Give us the wisdom to know when to let go, and grace to indeed let go!

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Sept. 14, the 257th day of 1979. There are 108 days left in the year.

On this date in 1901, President William McKinley died in Buffalo, N.Y., of a gunshot wound inflicted by an assassin. Vice President Theodore Roosevelt was sworn in as president.

In 1970, the fourth and final session of the Roman Catholic Church's Ecumenical Council was opened by Pope Paul VI in St. Peter's Basilica.

Ten years ago: For the fifth time in less than a week, Israeli warplanes attacked Egyptian military objectives on the west shore of the Gulf of Suez.

Today's birthday: Former Democratic Sen. Dick Clark of Iowa is 50.

Thought for today: Men reject their prophets and slay them, but they love their martyrs and honor those whom they have slain — Fedor Dostoevski (1821-1881).

Gottfried Impressed With Foe As Murray Awaits Home Opener

By TONY WILSON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

"Is coach Brewer in?" the caller asked. "No," the Southeastern Louisiana football secretary answered this morning. "The team has left for its game with Murphy, uh, Murr, uh, the school from Kentucky," she replied.

Certainly Billy Brewer and his Southeastern Louisiana football squad know more about Murray State, because Racer coach Mike Gottfried has made it plain that his team won't underestimate THIS squad.

When the two teams meet for the first time ever at Roy Stewart Stadium Saturday at 7:30 p.m., the Lions "could easily be the best team we'll play all year," Gottfried said earlier this week. "They are big, strong and have a great defense."

How great is it? For openers, McNeese State needed a 51-yard field goal late in the game to defeat the Lions 10-7 last week. And McNeese, it should be pointed out, had beaten Tulsa the week before.

The Southeastern Louisiana unit also ranked second last season in Division II statistics in team defense and first in scoring defense (7.1 points a game). And the Lions lost only three starters from the squad that yielded just 181.1 yards a game.

Two defensive standouts the Racers won't see, however, are Anthony Vereen and Albert Chapman. Vereen, a senior defensive back, intercepted five passes last year, but injured a knee against McNeese State and is lost for the year. Chapman, a sophomore defensive end, was also injured last week.

That should be good news for Murray State quarterback Ricky Ray, who is coming off a shining 16-of-22 passing performance against Evansville. That effort pushed him to third nationally in Division I-AA passing statistics.

"Ricky was a big factor in our finally driving the ball offensively," said Gottfried. "But we're going to need that same kind of punch Saturday to play with these guys."

Junior tailback Danny Lee Johnson says he's finally beginning to recover from the burst blood vessel in a foot that slowed him during fall workouts. Johnson rushed for 136 yards on 23 carries last week to put him only nine yards away from the 2,000-yard career rushing mark.

Southeastern Louisiana has a potent backfield threat of its own in junior tailback Robert Hicks, a 5-7 speedster who picked up 102 yards on 24 carries against McNeese State. Hicks averaged 4.5 yards a carry last season.

Gottfried said that freshman David Tuck, who will carry a 39.2-yard punting average into Saturday's contest, will be relieved of his kickoff and place-kicking duties. Brian Crall, Murray's third-string quarterback, will likely assume those chores.

"It's tough, especially for a freshman, to handle the pressures of doing all those things," said Gottfried. "But David's been a great punter for us so far." Tuck ranks third in punting among his Ohio Valley Conference peers.

Southeastern Louisiana, an independent, has gone 32-19-2 during Brewer's six years as head coach, including a 22-8-2 mark over the past three seasons.

Other pregame notes:

✓ Southeastern Louisiana's placekicker, Frank Condon, was 11 of 20 on his field-goal attempts last season and is currently riding a streak of six straight successful kicks.

✓ Ronald Lee Hopkins, a freshman from Lake County, Tenn., High School, is a possible starter at cornerback for the Racers. Wade Buchanan, another freshman from Ballard Memorial High, has been moved from fullback to safety, and Jerry Powell, a sophomore from Mansfield, Ohio, is now a member of the defensive secondary.

Murray, 1-0-1 on the year, will attempt to capture its fourth victory in seven home season openers at Stewart Stadium.

Danny Lee Johnson, who rushed for 136 yards last week, is just nine yards shy of the 2,000-yard career rushing mark.

Happy Colonel

Eastern Ky.'s McIntyre Looking Forward To Rest Of '79 Season

By the Associated Press
With the first game out of the way — and in the win column, no less — Eastern Kentucky linebacker Bob McIntyre finds himself looking eagerly ahead to the rest of the football season.

McIntyre and Eastern Kentucky took an auspicious first step last week toward the Ohio Valley Conference title the Colonels are favored to win this year. Eastern edged Kent State, a major college team, by 17-14 in a game that McIntyre thinks is proof of the changing face of the Kentucky club.

Although the offense isn't to be sneezed at, the Colonel defense looks to be the key this year.

"As the season progresses, we'll just be getting better each week," said McIntyre. "We've got some pretty good personnel...we've got more depth and more experienced players. I think each of us has more confidence."

OVC Roundup

McIntyre has reason for confidence. He was credited with 10 tackles and six assists against Kent State to earn league defensive player of the week honors.

He'll get a chance to duplicate that performance

Saturday when Eastern hosts Troy, Ala., State.

That will be one of six non-league games Saturday as the OVC gets in its final preparation for the opening of conference hostilities on Sept. 22.

In addition to the Eastern-Troy game, the schedule has defending champion Western Kentucky at home against Lamar as the Hilltoppers attempt to pick up the pieces following last week's 41-28 loss at Chattanooga.

In other games, Murray entertains Southeast Louisiana, Middle Tennessee visits Tennessee-Martin and Cameron, Okla., calls on Tennessee Tech and Morehead makes its first start of the season at Kentucky State. Austin Peay is idle.

In last week's other games, Murray stopped Evansville 24-14, Austin Peay rattled UT-Martin 34-7, Middle Tennessee dropped a 20-17 decision to North Alabama and Tennessee Tech was a 24-7 victim of Western Carolina.

Although the score appeared lopsided, Western Kentucky can take some solace in its loss to Chattanooga. Consider that Western managed only a pair of touchdowns last year in a 42-15 thrashing, but rallied from that setback to win the OVC title.

Hesburgh Says Notre Dame Will 'Cream' Michigan

By TOM CANAVAN
Associated Press Writer

Notre Dame University President Rev. Theodore Hesburgh may be seeing red, but black and blue are likely to be the primary colors Saturday when sixth-ranked Michigan hosts the ninth-ranked Fighting Irish.

Hesburgh, making a rare appearance Thursday night at a student pep rally on the Notre Dame campus, was a little disappointed that the nation's bookies had made the Irish a 6-to-7 point underdog for its season opener. And he let his feeling be known.

"Jimmy The Greek may know his percentages," Hesburgh said. "But I know Notre Dame and we're gonna cream them."

The Wolverines will have something to say about that, however, and history seems to be on their side. Michigan is one of six institutions that holds a series advantage against the Fighting Irish. The Ann Arbor school has won ten of 12 meetings with Game 13 on tap in Michigan's Stadium before a sellout crowd of 105,000 and a regional TV audience on ABC-TV.

"They're all big and they're going to be quick," said Michigan middle guard Mike Trgovac, referring to the Notre Dame offense.

"You just have to be ready to be sore Saturday night, that's all," he added.

In other college football games involving top 20 teams this weekend: top-ranked Southern California is at Oregon State; Iowa is at No. 3 Oklahoma; No. 5 Purdue is at UCLA; Rutgers visits No. 7 Penn State; Utah State is at

No. 8 Nebraska and Oregon will face No. 10 Michigan State.

In the second ten, No. 11 Missouri is at Illinois, Wake Forest goes to No. 12 Georgia; Florida is at No. 13 Houston; Utah is at No. 14 Washington; No. 15 Ohio State visits Minnesota; Kansas is at No. 16 Pittsburgh; Colorado State faces No. 17 Arkansas; Arizona State is at No. 18 Florida State; Virginia is at No. 19 North Carolina State and No. 20 Southern Methodist visits Texas Christian.

Second-ranked Alabama and fourth-ranked Texas have the week off.

The No. 1 ranked Trojans will be getting only limited use out of All-America tailback Charles White, who suffered a shoulder injury in last week's 21-7 win over Texas Tech. However, that may not bother Coach John Robinson's team, which holds a 37-7-4 career edged over the Beavers.

Heisman Trophy winner Billy Sims will make his debut this season as the Sooners play host to the Cyclones while Purdue's Mark Herrmann, who tossed for four touchdowns in the Boilermakers win over Wisconsin and who is given a good shot at this year's Heisman, will try to lead Purdue to their first win ever over the Bruins of UCLA.

In another notes of interest this week, former Miami Dolphins offensive coordinator Howard Schnellenberger begins the Schnellenberger era at the University of Miami as the Hurricanes host Louisville. Meanwhile, former New England Patriots head coach Chuck Fairbanks is looking for his first win on this his second time around in the college ranks when Colorado hosts Charlie McClendon's Louisiana State Tigers.

UK's Question-Mark Squad Prepares For Miami Of Ohio

By the Associated Press
LEXINGTON, Ky. — Kentucky can be described as a 22-man question mark going into Saturday's season-opening football game against visiting Miami of Ohio.

The Wildcats may use as many as 15 freshmen, including five in the starting lineup, said Coach Fran Curci. How they would perform in a game remained to be seen, but Curci said they were sure to be enthusiastic.

"I guess this is the first time we as coaches have shown this amount of patience," he said. "We have to remember the freshmen are really trying to help us. They'll make mistakes, but they're not doing it on purpose."

"I have no idea what to expect," said Curci, who has never lost an opening game in six previous seasons at Kentucky. "I feel certain limitations I've never felt before."

"After practicing with these kids, we pretty much know our strengths and weaknesses. I am encouraged by the way they've acted. These kids have done everything we've asked them to do."

The Wildcats may be mysterious, but not the Redskins. The perennial Mid-American Conference power will try to add Kentucky to a long list of larger schools it has victimized in recent years.

Miami opened its season last week by blitzing Ball State, the defending MAC champion, 27-3.

"We scouted them in their victory over Ball State and we know they're extremely quick, extremely efficient," Curci said. "And they have a purpose, a built-in traditional purpose ... everything to win, nothing to lose."

"Their win over Ball State was important to Miami because it was a conference game, but our game may even be more important because

Dougherty Has Share Of Lead

By the Associated Press
GRAND BLANC, Mich. — Ed Dougherty waited out a one-hour and eight-minute rain delay, then rammed home a 12-foot birdie put to earn a share of the first round lead with Cesar Sanudo in the $150,000 Buick Open.

Dougherty and Sanudo each fired a 5-under par 67s. George Burns, George Archer, Dave Eichelberger, Bob Eastwood, and PGA champion David Graham were one stroke back of the co-leaders.

they delegate to themselves the role of giant killer. Miami goes into virtually every game as an underdog and they love it."

Most of Kentucky's freshmen will be used on special teams, including both kickoff return men, Andy Molls and Tom Petty.

There also will be several new faces in the Wildcat starting lineup.

Curci said Steve Williams, a sophomore playing his first season of college ball, would start at right offensive tackle. The left tackle will be either freshman Mickey Cochran or freshman Gerald Smyth.

Other starting freshmen include tailback Chris Jones, defensive tackle Kevin Kearns and defensive end Jeff Dennis. Freshman Randy Jenkins will be the punter and Don Fielder, a junior college transfer whom Curci called "a freshman to our system," will be the other defensive end.

Freshman Richard Abraham, who was battling for a defensive end position before a collapsed lung sidelined him in practice "has been released to run and engage in very limited hitting," Curci said.

"He's young and strong and a quick healer. Abraham will dress for the game, but I won't use him unless it's a last-resort situation."

Anderson, Andrews After 3rd Big Game

Rookies To Face Big Test

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer

In 60 years of professional football no rookie has ever rushed for more than 100 yards in each of his first three big league games. On Sunday, two newcomers try to break that barrier.

Ottis Anderson of St. Louis and William Andrews of Atlanta both have shattered the century mark twice in as many games — only the fourth and fifth rookies in National Football League history to accomplish that. Now they go for No. 3 against formidable opponents — Anderson facing the Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers and Andrews going against Denver's Orange Crush defense.

NFL PICKS

You have to be a longshot lover to think both will make it and the Pro Picker chooses the chalk here, figuring those defenses will be too tough to crack for the two freshmen. Last week's 11-2 made the season record 21-6 for .778.

The picks:
PITTSBURGH 31, ST.

LOUIS 10: Double T Anderson runs into double trouble from the Steeler defense, which has surrendered 100 yards to a runner only 15 times since 1970.

ATLANTA 16, DENVER 13: Upset special. The Bronco defense hasn't allowed a TD yet and should control William Andrews. But Denver has to find some offense.

DALLAS 24, CHICAGO 7: Cowboys must control rejuvenated Alan Page, who's had five sacks in two games. Their tough offensive line should handle him.

SAN DIEGO 34, BUFFALO 14: Dan Fouts and the sky-high Chargers should bring Bills back to earth.

MIAMI 23, MINNESOTA 10: Dolphins have been missing too many opportunities. Vikings are just plain missing.

TAMPA BAY 21, GREEN BAY 17: Another upset. Bucs gaining in stature, especially after wiping out 17-point deficit against Colts in Baltimore.

OAKLAND 30, SEATTLE 14: Raiders are underdogs because this is their third straight game on the road but Seahawk turnovers could be the difference here.

NEW ORLEANS 24, PHILADELPHIA 20: The Saints usually play well at home and they have an extra day's rest on the Eagles who played Monday night.

NEW ENGLAND 38, CINCINNATI 7: Name your margin for the Patriots, who ought to have a picnic against the Bengal defense.

N.Y. JETS 21, DETROIT 14: Both are winless and neither is that bad. Pick the Jets because they're at home.

HOUSTON 20, KANSAS CITY 10: Sub-par day for Earl Campbell last week means the Oilers' bread-and-butter man will have some extra incentive against the Chiefs.

LOS ANGELES 14, SAN FRANCISCO 3: That Ram defense is tough to crack. Come to think of it, 49ers find most defenses tough to crack.

CLEVELAND 23, BALTIMORE 14: Browns come home after winning two close ones on the road. Colts should cooperate.

WASHINGTON 28, N.Y. GIANTS 17 (Monday Night): What did Frank, Howard and Danderoo do to deserve the Giants on Monday night?

U.S. Wins Two Gold Medals As Games Close

By the Associated Press
MEXICO CITY —

Romanian Ilie Floroiu completed a distance double, the United States won two gold medals and world-record holder Pietro Mennea led a winning Italian 400-meter relay team in track and field events that closed the 10th World University Games.

Floroiu, who previously had taken the 10,000-meter run, won the 5,000 in 14 minutes, 12.9 seconds.

Evans White of Ecorse, Mich., won the men's 800-meters with a time of 1:48.87.

Meanwhile, the only American relay team that made it to the finals, the men's 1,600, won in the absence of the favored West Germans, who made a last-minute decision not to run.

The Soviet Union won more medals than any other country, taking 34 golds, 28 silvers and 24 bronzes for a total of 76. The United States was next with 21 golds, 14 silvers and 16 bronzes for 51, while third-place Romania captured 13 golds, 3 silvers and 14 bronzes for a total of 30 medals.

Tennis, A Later Sport In Hunt's Life, Has Offered Many Benefits

By BOB MCGAUGHEY

Bob McGaughey is chairman of Murray State University's Radio Television and Journalism Department.

The finals of the 35-and-over division in the Kentucky Hard-court Tennis Championships held in Murray last weekend produced a champion. He was...ready?... Eddie Hunt. No surprise there. Hunt has been winning for some time now.

He made a run at the number one ranking in the state in the 35-and-over singles division of the Kentucky Closed Tennis Championships July 12-14 in Lexington, defeating Charles Burns of Lexington 6-2, 7-5 for his first state closed title. In the semifinals, the Murray sporting goods store owner had beaten Henry Baughman, the champion for the past three years, 6-4, 6-3.

Last year was Hunt's first year in the state tournaments. In fact, he has only been playing tennis for about 10 years.

"Perhaps my experience will serve as an example for people who picked up the game a little late in their life. Although my back hand form is a little unorthodox, with a lot of work and practice I have been able to develop my game to the point of being competitive in my age group," explained Hunt.

Hunt lettered at Paducah Tilghman in football, basketball, and baseball, but he didn't play tennis. He was a member of the Tilghman state champion baseball team in 1960 and was named most valuable player in the district basketball tournament.

He enrolled as a business student at Murray State in 1961. During his college career he didn't play any varsity sports but played intramural flag football, basketball, softball, badminton, and track.

After graduation and a commission as a second lieutenant in the Murray State ROTC program, he went into the Army for two years, including a year in Vietnam as part of the 9th Division in the Mekong Delta.

When his regular Army obligation was up, he returned to Murray in the summer of 1968 to begin working on a master's degree in physical education. As part of his duties as graduate assistant, he had to teach a beginning tennis class.

Hunt recalled, "I had never played much tennis so I started reading and playing to get ready for the class. Bennie Purcell played with me a lot and also later allowed me to play against some of the college players."

For a while Hunt also played against Purcell's then 10-year-old son, Mel. "Several afternoons a week Mel and I would play a couple of hours after school. At that time he was so small that it was all he could do to keep the ball in play. However, when he reached 14, he beat me 7-6, 7-6 in the finals of the Cape Girardeau, Mo. Open Tournament.

"It was the first time he had beaten me in any kind of tournament or regular competition. From that point on, I never beat him. Now I doubt that I could even win a game from him," said Hunt.

The Cape Girardeau tournament was just one of several Hunt played in after seriously taking up the sport. "I played a lot of the local tournaments with Bennie or Del (Bennie Purcell's other son who is now the pro at the new tennis center at Kentucky Lake State Park) or Gene Landolt in doubles and with Sue Outland in mixed doubles. We usually played at places like Cape, Paducah, Jackson (Tenn.), Sikeston (Mo.), Owensboro and Murray.

Counting club tournaments Hunt figures he has won about 30 tournaments in either singles or doubles. "Of course, I didn't play in any state tournaments until I turned 35 last year."

EDDIE HUNT

Hunt and his wife, the former Lanette Underwood, have occasionally played together in mixed tournaments but more often than not they have met in the finals. Eddie would be teamed with Sue Outland while Lanette played with her brother Ron, a former All-OVC tennis player at Murray State. However, the Hunts did team up to win the mixed doubles at Cape Girardeau.

Lanette, who played one year of tennis at Murray State, has won several women's doubles titles with Sue Outland. Her record as a coach, though, even outshines her record as a player.

Since she became the tennis coach of the Murray High School team in 1974, her girls team has never lost a dual match. The record includes more than 60 consecutive victories.

Kathy Outland and Candy Jackson won the state high school doubles title this year, and last year Jackson teamed with Robin Burke to capture first place. In 1976 and 1977 her girls doubles team made it to the state finals before losing.

In the boys state high school doubles competition, Mel and Del Purcell were state champions two years in a row when Mel was still a junior high student.

Why has a small western Kentucky town like Murray produced such outstanding tennis players?

Eddie and Lanette give credit to Bennie Purcell, Ron Underwood, and Hunt Smock. Smock started the first high school team with most of the players coming from the middle school. Then Lanette came back to Murray and took over the coaching duties.

She had learned her tennis from her brother Ron in their hometown of Granite City, Ill. There he gave lessons to youngsters at the park. One of his pupils was a boy from Bellville, Ill. named Jimmy Connors.

According to Eddie, Ron was one of the people who helped start the interest in tennis in Murray. "He was the only one at that time who knew enough about the sport to teach it," he recalled.

Since then Murray, a town of 15,000, has seen a steady growth in the interest of tennis. The Purcells and Hunts have played a significant role in that growth.

"One thing was the university influence — the facilities available and Bennie getting a lot of people started, particularly through his summer tennis camps. Then we had some success, not only at our level but in the high school. It just carried over and everybody got interested in tennis," said Eddie.

"It used to be that tennis was thought of as a country club sport. We even thought it was a sissy game which, of course, now everybody knows it isn't. Now more of your better athletes are playing tennis where when I grew up, they all played football, basketball and baseball.

Hunt finds time to get in some practice while still running his sporting goods store, which he co-owns with E.W. Dennison, a former Racer football player from Jackson, Tenn. He says that his playing helps him promote the store.

Now that he has shown that he can be number one in his age group in the state, what are his goals for the future? "I would like to be able to play and be competitive in the state and the sectional tournaments like the Southern. And I would like to work with some of our younger players in town, particularly when they work hard and you can see them develop into good players."

Orioles End 3-Game Skid, Batter Toronto's Blue Jays

By KEN RAPPOPORT
 AP Sports Writer

Mike Flanagan's blister caused him more problems than Toronto's bats Thursday night.

And when that happened, it was time for Don Stanhouse, as usual.

The Baltimore Orioles continued to throw the strongest arms in the American League at opponents, beating the Toronto Blue Jays 10-4 behind the combined four-hit pitching of Flanagan and Stanhouse.

"They're always easier when you're given a big lead," said Flanagan. "But this is a year where everything's gone my way. When I've been a little off, the team's scored some runs and when the bats haven't come around, I've been on my game."

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Flanagan was on his way to his 16th complete game of the year when the blister developed on his pitching hand, and Manager Earl Weaver took him out in the ninth inning.

"There was no sense going further with him," said Weaver. "That's why we've got guys like Don and Tippy (Martinez) on the club."

The victory, incidentally, stopped a three-game losing streak for the Orioles and solidified their lead in the AL East. The Orioles are up by 11 games over Milwaukee, an 8-3 loser to Oakland.

Elsewhere in the AL, Minnesota beat Texas 7-4 in 12 innings and New York defeated Boston 10-3. The Cleveland-Detroit game was rained out.

The Murray State University Student Government Association is sponsoring a Bicycle Safety Clinic. It is to be held in conjunction with Kentucky State Police and the International Year of the Child.

Riding skills will be checked and bicycles will be given a thorough examination. All entrants will receive a certificate and a prize. Everyone must bring his own bicycle and refreshments will be served.

The clinic will start at Roy Stewart Stadium parking lot on Saturday, September 15. All ages are invited - Ages 6-8 9 a.m.; Ages 9-12 10 a.m.; Ages 13-Adult 11 a.m.

McEnroe, Fresh From Victory, After Davis Cup

By the Associated Press
 MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The kid wins the biggest prize of his life — one of the biggest in all of tennis — gets a day to relish it, then gets on a plane and goes back to work.

"The past few days have been kind of a letdown," said 20-year-old U.S. Open champion John McEnroe as he prepared to play in today's opening matches of the U.S. series against Argentina in the American Zone final for the Davis Cup.

EXCESS BAGGAGEBefore you go on a trip, you must plan carefully in order to take as few pieces of baggage as possible. The most carefree travelers are those who travel lightly. There is nothing more miserable than to take excess baggage from one place to another.Excess baggage can hinder you in life as well. The happy traveler through life is one who finds a set of values that serves him well in every situation. Then he sheds himself of wornout prejudices and misconceptions that prevent him from experiencing all that life has to offer. Re-examine your life—is excess baggage preventing you from being open to all the joy there is in life?© Williams Newspaper Features Syndicate, Inc.

ARRANGING FLOWERS — Mary Hamilton of the Garden Department arranges her home grown roses for the centerpiece for the refreshment table for the tea. Mrs. Hamilton grows her roses and arranges many bouquets for clubs, churches, friends, etc.

ZETA — Bonnie Jones, general president and a member of the Zeta Department, looks at the poster showing the Read-A-Thon for the Kentucky Association of Retarded Citizens sponsored each year by the group. The department also sponsors essay contests for the schools among its projects.

DELTA — Projects of the department featured include Red Cross Volunteer work, leading the cancer drive, and pictures of the many members who have served as general presidents of the club.

HOME — On the left is the garment, made and modeled by Maudena Butterworth, which won district honors. The Home Department sponsors the sewing contests for members and high school students. Other projects include the Heart Fund Drive.

Woman's Club Has Open House

The Murray Woman's Club, organized in 1900, held open house on Sept. 12 for the members and general public to exhibit and show the many projects and services of the club composed of ten departments.

Bonnie Jones, president, said the club is a civic organization with the object to be the mutual improvement of its members and the promotion of any worthy public cause. Practical, civic, and educational work shall be undertaken as well as purely cultural studies, Mrs. Jones added.

Departments of the club are Alpha, Creative Arts, Delta, Garden, Home, Kappa, Music, Sigma, Theta, and Zeta. Pictures of exhibits by the Alpha with the theme, "Our Challenging Culture," and by the Sigma with projects including fair queen and scholarship were not available.

KAPPA — Special project of the department is the Haunted House held each year. This year funds from the project will be donated to the Calloway County Middle School Library for the purpose of purchasing reference books.

GENERAL CLUB — On the left is a basket placed on the general club exhibit for persons to place their discarded postage stamps which are sent to CARE for overseas food. On the right is the Club Scrapbook, compiled this past year by Paulette Hohman, which won honors at the state contest. The names of the ten departments are featured on the umbrella.

STAFF PHOTOS BY DEBBIE N. LEE

THETA — On the right is handmade quilt by Betty Beaman of the department that won honors in the district and state contests. Projects of the department include compiling blind corners in the city, assisting in Arthritis Drive, and helping with donations for youth organizations.

GARDEN — Featured in the exhibit is a coffee tree, the Kentucky tree, in the background. The tree, three years old, was shown by Dortha Jones of the department and is admired here, along with all the other flower arrangements by members, by Jo Burkeen.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. Hazel Utterback Dies Thursday At Long-Term Unit

Mrs. Hazel Lovins Utterback, 92, died at 10:30 p.m. Thursday at the long-term care unit of the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

Mrs. Utterback, a resident of 10th and Poplar Streets, Murray, was born in Calloway County on Oct. 10, 1886, to Alexander and Minerva Stubblefield Pitts. She married Harry Utterback on Oct. 14, 1910, and he preceded her in death. She was a member of the Memorial Baptist Church.

Several nieces and nephews survive.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the chapel of the Max Churchill Funeral Home with the Rev. Dr. Jerrell White and the Rev. Leon Penick officiating. Rev. Penick will sing, and Oneida White will be the organist. Burial will be in the Murray City Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 p.m. Friday.

S.C. (Sam) Arnett, Retired Farmer, Dies On Thursday

S. C. (Sam) Arnett, 515 College St., Lone Oak, died Thursday at his home. Arnett, a retired farmer, was 95 years old.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Harold Bell, Mayfield; Mrs. Frank Rohrer, Shelbyville; Mrs. Clayton Adams, Murray; and Mrs. Charles Hughes, Lone Oak; and two sons, Allen Arnett, Mayfield; and Dr. Halburn Arnett, Louisville.

Also surviving are two brothers, Jim D. Arnett, Mayfield, and R. H. (Bobby) Arnett, Mayfield, 15 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Byrns Funeral Home in Mayfield with Dr. Charles Dinkins officiating. Burial will be in Spence Chapel Cemetery. Grandsons will be pallbearers.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 1 p.m. today.

Pre-Dawn Phone Calls Lead To Recovery Of Missing College Student

DESOTO, Texas (AP) — Three pre-dawn telephone calls led to the recovery of a missing 16-year-old college student who had been feared dead, the victim of an intellectual fantasy game transferred to real life.

"We agree this is the most bizarre case we've ever been involved with," private investigator William Dear said Thursday, after he found James Dallas Egbert III and put him under a doctor's care.

Dear, hired by Egbert's family, said the teen-ager's disappearance was not related to the game "Dungeons and Dragons" — but refused to say where the boy was found or what he had been doing since he disappeared from Michigan State University on Aug. 15.

Rev. R. J. Burpoe To Speak Sunday At Grace Baptist Church

Brother R. J. Burpoe, pastor of the Grace Baptist Church, will be the speaker for the Sunday morning and evening worship services beginning at 10:45 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

The choir will sing "Whispering Hope" at the morning service. Leland Peeler will direct the music. Dwayne Jones is organist and Anita Underhill is pianist.

Nursery workers will be Thelma McDougal, Carolyn Caldwell, Catherine Smotherman, Gail Workman, Hazel Ray and Marie Outland for the morning service. Evening workers will be Rachel Rickman, Clovis Jones, Dean Downey and Sylvia Rickman.

County Residents May Register To Vote Saturday

Residents of Calloway County who have not registered to vote may do so on Saturday, Sept. 15, in front of the Otasco store in Bel Air Shopping Center on South 12th Street.

Members of the Murray-Calloway League of Women Voters will register voters at this location during the hours from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Any person wishing to register must furnish the registrars with his or her Social Security number. In order to vote in the General Election on Nov. 6, a citizen must be 18 years old by Election Day, must have been a Kentucky resident and a resident of the precinct in which he will vote for at least 30 days before the election, and must be properly registered.

Citizens wishing to register may do so at the above location on Saturday Sept. 15 or Sept. 22, during regular office hours at the office of the county clerk on the first floor of the County Court House before Oct. 9.

Voter registration closes one month before an election so that information from each county can be entered in the computer system in Frankfort, according to League spokeswoman Charlotte Hammack. The computerized lists are sent back to the county so that each voter's name can be checked at election day at the polls in each precinct.

CHRIST ALMIGHTY.

This is one of the basic concepts of the Christian Church. We are known as the Disciples of Christ. The central belief of our church is that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. This does indeed make him all mighty.

However, we feel that each person has the right to worship and approach God according to his or her personal interpretation of the Bible. Freedom of faith is a birthright of each of us.

Eventually we all must answer to the Almighty so we should have the responsibility for the life we bring before Him. It can be nobody else's job.

If you are looking for a place where you can express your faith and life in a way that is compatible with this responsibility, we invite you to visit us next Sunday. We hope you will find here the church family you have searched for. We'd like to help.

The First Christian Church

Dr. David C. Roos, Minister

Police found a note in the youth's room saying he wished to be cremated "should my body be found," but authorities had feared Egbert became trapped, perhaps in the maze of steam tunnels beneath the campus, while playing a real-life version of the game normally acted out on paper.

In "Dungeons and Dragons," which sometimes can take years to play, a "dungeon master" creates a prison on graph paper and players using special dice determine their ability to overcome obstacles like monsters and goblins in their attempts to escape.

"We crawled through tunnels after tunnels, we climbed through holes and crevices we didn't even think existed," said Dear, who added authorities were never convinced Egbert wrote the note found in his room.

Dear said he was unable to develop any concrete leads to the sophomore computer science student's whereabouts until he got three phone calls early Thursday.

"I was able to talk to the boy. He was crying intermittently and a man in the background was telling him 'Cool it, man, cool it.' Then later this afternoon I was able to make arrangements to pick up the boy," said Dear.

Dr. Blankenship To Speak At Morning Church Service

Morning Worship at South Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church begins this Sunday, Sept. 16, at 10:45 a.m. The sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Paul Blankenship, will be entitled "Keeping Oneself Unstained From the World."

The choir, directed by Mrs. Lurine Cooper, will sing "I Need Jesus" with Miss Joan Cooper as organist and Tommy Gaines as pianist.

Sunday evening at 6:30 there will be a fellowship supper at the church in honor of the church school teachers and workers.

Martin's Chapel Church To Hear Pastor On Sunday

The Martin's Chapel United Methodist Church will hear the pastor, the Rev. Daniel Tucker, at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday, Sept. 16.

The church choir directed by Ralph Robertson with Ricky Cunningham as pianist, will sing "The Love of God" as the special selection at the morning worship service.

Sunday school will be at 10 a.m. with Pat Robertson as superintendent.

The annual revival for the church will start Sunday night and continue through Saturday, Sept. 22. The Rev. John Tate will be the guest speaker.

St. Leo's Church Announces Mass Times For Week

Masses at St. Leo's Catholic Church will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 15 and at 8 a.m., 11 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 16 with the Rev. Martin Mattingly in charge.

Weekday masses will be held at 6:15 a.m. Monday, Sept. 17, and at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 18, through Friday, Sept. 21.

Rev. Paul McAdoo To Speak At Conyersville Revival

The Rev. Paul McAdoo will be the speaker for the revival to be held at the Conyersville Methodist Church beginning Sunday, Sept. 16.

The revival will continue through Friday, Sept. 21. Services will begin at 7:30 nightly.

The Rev. Randy Jetton is the pastor.

The News In Brief

INTERNATIONAL

LONDON (AP) — Denouncing the guerrillas fighting his government as "bloodthirsty murderers," Zimbabwe Rhodesia's prime minister threatened to quit the British-sponsored peace talks if Britain bows to guerrilla demands for control of the former colony.

POMEZIA, Italy (AP) — Pope John Paul II got a colorful reception but only one-fifth the audience he expected in this industrial town as Italian workers flocked to the beach, apparently convinced the Roman Catholic Church cares more about the rich than them.

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP) — Vast reservoirs of oil and natural gas perhaps rivaling those of the Middle East lie hidden beneath the ice above the Arctic Circle, a Canadian oil executive said today.

"The Arctic Ocean has the potential to relieve the world of impending energy shortages by providing an important new geographic source of oil and gas," said G. R. Harrison, senior vice president of Dome Oil Ltd.

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiators for General Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers union struggled early today to reach a new contract before the midnight deadline for a strike that would idle 95,000 workers and nearly half the company's 1980 model production.

Rev. Billy Turner To Speak At Sinking Spring

The Rev. Billy Turner, pastor of the Sinking Spring Baptist Church, will speak at both the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. worship services on Sunday, Sept. 16.

Jim Neale, deacon of the week, will assist in the service. Tommy Scott will direct the music with Susie Scott as pianist and Patsy Neale as organist. A duet will be sung by the Rev. Turner and his wife.

The ordinance of baptism will be observed at the evening service.

Sunday School will be at 10 a.m. and Church Training at 6:30 p.m.

Country Club To Hold After Game Get-Together

An adult "After Game Social" will be held at the Murray Country Club Saturday immediately following the Murray State University-Southeastern Louisiana football game.

All club members are invited to attend the event, which will be held in the family room of the clubhouse.

The once-brutal winds of the storm called Frederic pushed torrential rains today as remnants of the former hurricane moved north, leaving residents of three states to sweep up the splinters of their homes and businesses and to bury their dead.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern Californians face another day of dense air pollution today after a week of eye-stinging smog — the worst in almost 25 years — which has sent scores of residents to hospitals complaining of respiratory problems.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scientists have developed some new forms of vitamin A that they say show preliminary promise in preventing some kinds of cancer without toxic side effects.

The new synthetic vitamin A derivatives have not been tested in humans, but preliminary laboratory and animal work is "encouraging," Dr. Nancy Acton, a National Institutes of Health researcher, said Thursday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter's request for standby gasoline rationing authority is caught in a House-Senate stalemate, but leaders say they're hopeful of working things out by next week.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration, whose recent victories in Congress have been few and far between, is a step closer to winning a major revision of the welfare system.

A bill approved Thursday by the House Ways and Means Committee would create the first national minimum welfare benefit. It would also remove a provision in current law that has been called an incentive for the breakup of welfare families.

Bolen and Helen Spann were named to fill four of five positions on the Community Development Board, which will oversee the city's Community Development Project.

Police Chief Jerry Lee announced to the council that a $19,400 grant for a new communications system for use by the police and fire departments as well as other local emergency services. The grant will provide $17,460 in federal funds which will be matched by $970 each from state and local sources.

In other business, the council: — Approved a resolution authorizing the acceptance of a $268,060 grant from the federal Environmental Protection Agency to be used for designing a new sewage treatment plant for the city.

— Approved on second reading an ordinance increasing the charge for residential refuse pickup from $4 to $4.50 per month effective Oct. 1.

— Approved on second reading an amendment to the city personnel ordinance which restricts the hiring of close family members of elected officials or city employees without council approval.

— Approved on first reading ordinances increasing tap-on fees and usage rates for Murray Water System customers, and various rate increases for the Murray Sewer System.

— Approved the low bid of $9,788.30 from Sears of Murray for fencing at the gasoline storage facility at the new sanitation headquarters.

not the project would be the answer. It was suggested that a system of one-way streets might be a better way to help alleviate traffic congestion in and around the city.

Many of those in attendance indicated they feel a more urgent need is improvement of major roads coming into Murray, especially Ky. 94E.

Former mayor Holmes Ellis, however, expressed a concern that nothing has been done in the past six to eight years to correct the increasing traffic congestion problem in the city.

"I do not think Murray will make much progress unless there is an improvement in traffic (flow) from the university to the business district to Murray Manufacturing (Tappan)," Ellis said.

Joe Dick concurred with Ellis by telling the council that he does not believe the community can "sell itself to industry" if the traffic problems are not eliminated.

Following the public hearing, councilmen Lowry and Koenen both questioned the idea of putting the proposal on the November ballot.

"We're here to make decisions," Lowry said, adding that he feared if this question is put on the ballot, future councils may elect the same course of action whenever "hot potatoes arise."

Rev. R. E. Rabatin To Deliver Second Sermon In Series

"Hallowed Be Thy Name" is the title of the second in a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer by Rev. R. E. Rabatin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, for Sunday, Sept. 16.

The Church School will begin at 9:30 a.m., with lesson on how Joseph interpreted dreams, a spokesman said. One Adult Class will continue its study of Church Symbols and the Jesse Rogers Class will study the Uniform Lesson Series.

Morning worship begins at 10:45 a.m. The choir will be directed by Lisa Slater as they sing the anthem "O Divine Redeemer," by Gounod.

Soap Spinoff Predicted To Be Hit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—They called it "taking risks" back in May, and, if you listened long enough, you might have half-believed that ABC really stood to lose something with its daring fall schedule.

ABC split the profitable Tuesday night "Happy Days," "Laverne and Shirley" combination, and moved its most successful new show, "Mork and Mindy," from Thursday to Sunday night for a head-to-head battle with CBS' sitcom cleanup litter, Archie Bunker.

And a Mork-less Thursday is no worry for the ratings leader. The evening opens with "Laverne and Shirley," which showed strength last season.

What's Cooking?

The menus for the various lunchrooms in the city and county school systems for the week of Sept. 17 to 21 have been released by Glinda Jeffrey, food service director, Murray City Schools, and Joanna Adams, food service director, Calloway County Schools. They are subject to occasional change due to availability of food.

Menus are as follows:

MURRAY CITY
Monday—choice of hot tamales, chicken salad on lettuce, hamburger, hot dog, salad bar, fruits, and vegetables; Tuesday—choice of lasagna, pizza, hamburger, hot dog, salad bar, fruits, and vegetables; Wednesday—choice of corned beef and cabbage, tacos, hamburgers, hot dogs, salad bar, fruits, and vegetables; Thursday—choice of fish sandwich, steak sandwich, hamburgers, hot dogs, salad bar, fruits, and vegetables; Friday—choice of submarine, chuckwagon, hamburger, hot dog, salad bar, fruits, and vegetables.

MURRAY MIDDLE
Monday—choice of hamburger and fries or dog, fruits, vegetables, and dessert; Tuesday—choice of hamburger and fries or chef salad, fruits, vegetables, and dessert; Wednesday—choice of hamburger and fries or spaghetti, fruits, vegetables, and dessert; Thursday—choice of hamburger and fries or chef salad, fruits, vegetables, and dessert; Friday—choice of hamburger and fries, fruits, vegetables, and dessert.

ROBERTSON--Monday-- hot dogs, kraut, fruit wedges, and cookie;

Shirley" followed by "Benson," a spinoff from the popular "Soap."

"Benson" will make it, and not just because it follows a proven hit (though that will help). The show's star, Robert Guillaume, is a walking hit.

But "Benson" is an above-average show even without Guillaume, displaying a sense of the absurd and a welcome respect for the off-the-wall. With Guillaume, it is sure to fire.

Guillaume, in case you're not a "Soap" fan, was the butler on that parody. In his new series, he has gone to work for a widowed governor (James Noble), an innocent guy who is really too nice for politics. Fortunately, he has a new butler to help him run things. To be sure, some familiar sitcom innuendoes show up: Governor's aide to Benson: "Where's the coffee?" Benson: "In the pot. Where's the governor not?" Aide: "Same place."

But there are more fresh jokes than stale ones, as when the governor explains to Benson that his late wife was killed by horses.

The rich get richer, and NBC gets McLean Stevenson.

"I'm sorry," Benson says. "Trampled?" "No," replies the governor, "eaten."

Seems the First Lady went to a costume ball dressed as a sugar plum fairy, and her costume was made of sugar cubes and, well...

So, ABC has another hit. The rich get richer, and NBC gets McLean Stevenson.

Happy Readers

Carolyn Adams and the Calloway County Bookmobile keep many readers happy as it makes its regular route throughout Murray and Calloway County each month. A few of those who regularly look forward to the stops by the blue and white van are (counter-clockwise from left):

- Longtime bookmobile friend Mrs. Ira Lyons, Fox Meadows Trailer Park. Mrs. Lyons, who has received books from the bookmobile for many years, likes Kentucky books.
- These two children from the Ellis Drive neighborhood appear happy with their selections from the bookmobile.
- Bookmobile patron Mrs. Ruth Trevathan looks over some selections with Mrs. Adams, the bookmobile librarian.
- Mrs. Ethel Mitcheson leaving the bookmobile with a sackful of enjoyable reading.

Bookmobile Makes Circuit

Carolyn Adams (above), Calloway County bookmobile librarian, makes regular stops throughout the county in her bookmobile van (upper left). Anyone desiring a bookmobile stop for a particular neighborhood should call the Calloway County Public Library, 753-2288 and leave their name, address and telephone number.
